

5B050300- The themes of diploma work for the bachelor degree of “Psychology”

1. Gender peculiarities of psychological compatibility of colleagues in the collective.
2. Influence of workers' family conditions on the occurrence of professional action emotional combustion.
3. Influence of unemployment on aggressive behavior of rural youth.
4. Psychological peculiarities of the most frequent faculties in high school students.
5. The influence of religious principles on changing the values of people of different ages.
6. Peculiarities of studying the professional qualities of a person in professional selection.
7. Gender aspects of professional conflicts in labor activity.
8. Features of factors influencing the occurrence of professional deformation in different specialties.
9. Influence of personal factors on professional development of workers in the field of trade.
10. Psychological factors of aggressive behavior of managers in collective.
11. The profile orientation of students in the 12-year school
12. Features of self-esteem of young people who do not have a family.
13. Psychological study of influence of gambling activity on communicative abilities of preschool children.
14. Psychological peculiarities of admission to school in 12-year education.
15. Role of psychological service in diagnostics of student's proficiency in 12-year school.
16. Pedagogical-psychological features of transition to 12-year schooling.
17. The role of psychological service in the preparation of senior students to UNT.
18. The importance of providing psychological support to retirees.
19. Prevention of succeeding adolescents.
- Peculiarities of psychological work in the prevention of suicide among children and adolescents.
21. Psychological aspects of interpersonal communication in the family
22. Pedagogical conditions of peculiarities of interaction of students in personal development
23. Ways of psychological correction of emotional aspects of anxiety in primary school pupils
24. Psychological features of children in orphanages
25. Features of personal development of future psychologists
26. Relationship of behavior behavior of high school students with choice of profession
27. Research of interdependence of students' self-evaluation and professional orientation of the teacher-psychologist
28. Technology of working with children of pre-school age in inclusive education
29. The role of the family in the development of talents of younger school age children
30. Study of emotional world of preschool children