

6D012300 - The list of topical themes for doctoral research Social pedagogy and self-knowledge''

1. Training of pedagogical staff in the University.
2. Scientific bases of development of media culture of the future social teacher.
3. Modern information technology in the formation of students' communicative competence.
4. Peculiarities of integration of medieval school processes.
5. Organizational and pedagogical conditions for the development of informational culture of a future social teacher.
6. Develop critical thinking of students in the process of mediation.

7. Development of media culture of students of pedagogical educational institutions.
8. Scientific basis of formation of informational culture of students of higher educational institutions.
9. Scientific and pedagogical bases of formation of media professionalism on the basis of humanitarian disciplines.
10. Scientific bases of functional literacy development.
11. Scientific and pedagogical bases of socialization of student-youth through mass media.
12. Ways to improve the informational culture of future teacher-psychologists on the basis of pedagogical disciplines.
13. Scientific basis of formation of media professionalism of future social educators and teachers of self-knowledge.
14. The history of formation and development of media education in Kazakhstan.
15. Features of organization of independent work of students in case of credit education
16. Preparation of future social teachers for professional and pedagogical communication;
Religious and ethical bases of moral education of students;
18. Moral values: universal and national harmony;
19. Problems of value education of students in higher school;
20. Preparation of future social pedagogues for interpersonal communication in the pedagogical process.
21. Pedagogical-psychological bases of child labor in the family (the age is selected by the undergraduate)
22. Pedagogical bases of family and school associations in the socialization of a student (age is selected by the undergraduate);
23. Preparation of future teacher-psychologists for interpersonal communication in pedagogical process;
24. Problems of value education of students in higher school;
25. Spiritually-moral value is the basis of personality development.